NORTHWEST LOUISIANA

- Harold & Kumar Escape

The US Coast Guard's version of "Top Gun" with a little "An Officer and A Gentleman" thrown in features an aging USCG rescue swimmer, Ben Randall (Kevin Costner), whose team member is killed in a horrific rescue mission. Immediately prior to this terrible event, his wife (Sela Ward) also announced that she was leaving him. His first love would always be the rescue mission. His commander gives him a choice - quit or take a position as an instructor at the USCG training facility in Louisiana. Reluctantly he takes the position. Here he meets Jake Fischer (Ashton Kutcher), a young man with unlimited potential, but with a secret that seems to hold him back as a team player. Delving into his past, links are found that make him a psychic twin to the older man. Thrown into the midst of the story is a romance with Emily Thomas (Melissa Sagemiller), a local girl. Rescue missions punctuate the beginning and end of the story with the training sessions the center of the film.

New Boyfriend

Henry (Colin Hanks) is a young FBI agent. During a three-year absence from his home in Shreveport, his mother Marty (Meg Ryan) loses more than 100 pounds, looks great, and to Henry's embarrassment, has become a party animal. Within a day of Henry's returning home with his fiancée, Emily (Selma Blair), who's an FBI profiler, Marty meets Tommy (Antonio Banderas), a suave foreigner. He's posing as a consultant, but he's an international art thief, in town to steal "Mother and Son," a Bernini sculpture. Henry is detailed to head a team keeping his mom's new boyfriend under surveillance. Love, the law, and filial devotion are set to collide.

When Curtis Plummer (Ice Cube), a down on his luck former high school football star, takes the only job he can find – babysitting his misfit niece Jasmine – he discovers that she has the skills that once made him a great quarterback. The only place these two opposites get along is on the field, so Curtis is determined to turn Jasmine into the star of the local team, The Minden Browns, and get his own stride back by becoming the coach. The boys on the team don't want her but when this girl quarterback shows them she's got the skills, she'll turn their whole world upside down.

Z Season of the Witch (2010)

Behmen is a medieval knight who undertakes a mission, pitting him against a devious witch and making him the last hope for the world against an ancient and dark force. His faith broken by years of battle as a crusader, Behmen returns to central Europe to find his homeland decimated by the Black Plague. While searching for food and supplies at the Palace at Marburg, Behmen and his trusted companion, Felson, are apprehended and ordered by the dying Cardinal to deliver a young peasant girl, believed to be the witch responsible for the Plague, to a remote abbey where her powers can be destroyed. Behmen agrees to the assignment but only if the peasant girl is granted a fair trial. Starring Nicolas Cage, Ron Perlman and Stephen Campbell Moore.

Private Valentine (2007)

Jessica Simpson stars in this showbiz comedy concerning a pampered movie starlet who gets in over her head while attempting to land a lucrative film role. Informed by the producer that she is unfit to appear in an upcoming military-themed film, the ambitious but woefully shortsighted actress enlists in the Marines in hopes that the studio will take notice of her initiative. Though she immediately realizes her mistake upon arriving at Camp Pendleton, the patriotic actress determines to follow through with her plan and do her country proud in the process.

A young couple (James Marsden and Kate Bosworth) moves to a quaint southern town. Soon their perfect getaway turns out to become a living hell when dark secrets and lethal passions spiral out of control. Trapped by a pack of depraved locals led by a ruthless predator, they face a night of agonizing suffering and endless bloodshed. Now their only hope for survival is to become more savage than their merciless torturers.
